

Board Games Group 12th June by Hazel McCallum

Five of us met up on a sunny summer's day at The Old Well for our second outing with the game Settlers of Catan. After a brief reprise of the rules, the game was underway with a swift entrance of the Robber who generally thieved and thwarted throughout the game. The game was hotly contested, but not as hot as it got in the room, so an early end was agreed before we all suffered heat-stroke.

The next meetings will be on Monday 10th July and then 14th August, so if you'd like to join us, please get in touch. You don't need to know how to play any of the games as all of the games have been new to some each time.
