

Cryptic Crossword Group – March Report by Sue Overton

This month's two crosswords took the whole session to complete! Tricky but perseverance won through in the end.

Here are a couple of easier clues for you to try:-

Greek island company gets fur distributed (5)

Form of expression originally in Douglas, Isle of Man (5)

Answers to clues in last month's Forum :-

Catch sight of article – and fume! (6)

'Fume' is definition, solution is SEETHE

Boss's last greeting extremely tremulous (7)

'Tremulous' is definition, solution is SHIVERY

If you would like to join us at our next meeting in the Guide HQ, Birch Road, Barnard Castle just come long at 2pm on the second Monday of the month. You would be very welcome.

Sue Overton 07512 368884

sueoverton@hotmail.com