

Gardening Group

February Report by Pauline Fawcett

Sadly our first meeting of 2019 was beset by the same problem as last February (snow) and had to be cancelled. Never fear, we have arranged for Lee Brownson to give his presentation in October, so you won't miss it.

Friday, March 1st (in Stainton Village Hall, 1.40 for a 2pm start)

Howard Leslie from Quiet Corner Plants, Kirk Merrington.

" Unusual perennial plants – Have you ever grown these?"

Friday, April 5th

Sarah Hopps, will be giving a presentation on 'Touring the Gardens of Britain' and will have some plants with her to illustrate the talk.

'Sarah's passion for plants and gardening developed when she ran her own hardy plant nursery near Thirsk. A former panellist on BBC Radio York's gardening programmes, Sarah now enjoys escorting groups around the gardens of Britain and Europe. She is also very involved with the Harrogate Flower Shows - as a judge and a performer.'

Friday, 3rd May

Today will be a members meeting when we can swap plants, seedlings etc.

June -this is the start of our garden visits and by next month we should have information about what we have planned.
