

Forum Historical Environment Report: May 2020

It was most frustrating after we started the year so positively with a great turn out to hear acclaimed author Val Scully recount the life of Mary Eleanor Bowes, that April's proposed talk on the Duke of Windsor had to be postponed. Sadly too our projected visit in May to the Altogether Archaeology dig could not take place and there will be no meeting in June. Our proposed Piercebridge site visit with David Mason on July 9th is in the balance as I write. A final decision on this, and our remaining programme, will follow in due course.

More positively we are running a 'Grand May Quiz' in four weekly instalments. As I write we are just reaching the halfway point and a small, intrepid group of members are vying for supremacy. It was suggested (thank you Lusia) at Tuesday's virtual committee meeting that I make the remaining segments of the quiz available to all U3A members and I intend to do this. Please feel free to join in – the questions should require some internet (or book-based) research and may help fill the odd few moments.

Anyone wishing to join our group should contact Tim Meacham on simontimothymeacham@gmail.com

This is also the return address for any non-members wishing to submit quiz answers.
