

FELL WALKING GROUP REPORT BY PETER HARDING. JULY 2023

Cannot be sure if you have ever been,
To a place that is named Crimdon Dene.
On the Durham coastal path it does sit,
An eleven mile walk for the fairly fit.

Twelve fell walkers gathered together,
All wishing for a day of good weather.
Kids at play on Crimdon beach, dogs barking,
Everybody happy about the free car parking.

In four cars to Seaham, we all made our way,
To follow the chosen leader for the day.
Arrived at Tommy, well we did all pose,
Then off we went towards the Points Nose.

We walked together, but not in a bunch,
Stopped at Hawthorn Hive beach for lunch.
Then walked through Denes and industrial past,
Colliery towns and maybe some open cast.

We reached Crimdon Park Holiday caravan site,
Dunes cafe in time for a drink and a bite.
Eleven miles it stated in Durham coastal book,
Fourteen miles is what it actually took.
